order of Hon'ble single Judge is adversely affecting the pensionary benefits to the appellant.

Since the writ petition has not been decided on merit, but only on the ground of laches, ~~in appeal~~, it would not be possible for this reason to interfere with the matter. However, it would be open to the appellant to move for review of the order of Hon'ble single Judge, in the light of the changed circumstances of pentionary benefits.

With the aforesaid observations, this writ appeal stands disposed of.
